

Data Usage Terms

Kern Valley Wireless, Inc

Effective Date: March 12, 2012

At Kern Valley Wireless, Inc, we strive to provide reliable and fair internet access to all our customers. These Data Usage Terms outline how data usage is managed on our network to ensure quality service for everyone.

1. General Data Usage Guidelines

By using our internet service, you agree to:

- Use data responsibly and in compliance with our Acceptable Use Policy.
- Avoid excessive data consumption that may negatively impact network performance.
- Ensure that your usage does not interfere with other customers ability to access the internet.

2. Data Limits & Fair Use Policy

Depending on your service plan, your data usage may be subject to limits or fair use policies:

3. Prohibited Activities

You may not use our service to:

- Engage in excessive file-sharing, hosting public servers, or automated high-bandwidth applications.

- Conduct illegal activities, such as hacking, distributing malware, or copyright violations.
- Circumvent data limits or network management policies.

4. Network Management & Adjustments

To ensure a fair and consistent experience for all users, we may:

- Implement measures to prevent congestion during peak hours.
- Update our data usage policies as necessary to adapt to network demands.

5. Monitoring & Compliance

We monitor network traffic to manage performance and enforce fair use policies. However, we do not inspect or store the content of your online activities beyond what is required for legal and operational purposes.

6. Changes to Data Usage Terms

We may update these terms from time to time. Any changes will be communicated through our website or other official channels. Continued use of our service indicates acceptance of the updated terms.
